

Writing better sentences

Hongmei Pang

有人花一生守护神明
Some people spend a lifetime to protect the Holy

喜马拉雅天梯

Some people spend a lifetime to protect the Holy.

OOPS!

I've spent most of my life feeling invisible.

WHAT DID YOU MAKE TODAY?

MISTAKES.

- 1. Whether the film is appealing or not, the title is the first deciding factor, for it is the first that comes into the potential viewer's attention.
- Film's title is the determining factor in deciding whether it is appealing. It is the first thing that comes to the potential viewer's attention.

- 2. Whether effectively manage time or not might be the major difference between a successful people and a failed man.
- The major difference between successful and all other unsuccessful people is how they manage their time more effectively.

- 3. Willingness of farmers to participate in food traceability has been studied by Chen Shanzhi(2012) and results that the improvement of farmers' income is seriously influence their products' hygiene level.
- Chen (2012) studied the willingness of farmers to participate in food traceability. The results showed that the products' hygiene levels significantly/substantially/vastly/greatly improve their income.

- 4. There are 134 students completed the questionnaire, who are from food related and non food related disciplines.
- A total of 134 students majoring in food related and non food related disciplines completed the questionnaire.

- 5. Abundant researches have been done about the dictionary use of university students in China.
- There have been many studies of how students in China use the dictionary.

- 6. The research questions to be answered are as following.
- The research questions to be answered are as follows.

- 7. While the last 4 participants are asked to finish reading task with the exactly same dictionary, however, only after they finish reading the whole passage, which is to say they can not look up any word in the dictionary until they finish the whole passage.
- The last four participants were asked to finish the reading task with the same dictionary, however, they could not look up any word in the dictionary until after they finished the whole passage.

- 8. Its issue is about economy, so all of the participants are majored in it.
- This is a sociological study of religion's impact on economy. All of the participants major in economics.

- 9. Different persons share different work values, which can take on varied forms among individuals.
- Different people have different work values. They have differences in the things and ideas, and finally it is up to them to decide what is important.

- 10. A lot of attention was focused on work values.
- Work values have been receiving increased research attention.

- 11. According to the studies, there are three reasons that cause the difference of people's job satisfactions.
- Three types of explanations historically have been suggested to account for the variation in the job satisfactions of workers.

- 12. Arguably, literatures focusing on structures as well as compositional factors are quite abundant.
- Literature on structures as well as compositional factors is abundant.

- 13. Taking notes beside the lines and revising them with the whole passage is useful while time consuming.
- Taking margin notes and incorporating them into the whole passage is useful but time consuming.

- 14. Since the most EFL students, little or no knowledge of English comes from daily life rather than specific classes or paperwork.
- EFL students acquire little or no knowledge of English from daily life. Mostly they learn from specific classes or paperwork.

- 15. Consequently, our research will be carried around fans and artists.
- Consequently, the present study tries to broaden the scope by examining the dialectics of the artists and fan culture.

- 16. The importance of a task seems to affect a lot on students' attitude.
- The perceived importance of a task shapes the students' attitudes toward it.

- 17. A similar study conducted by Wu investigated 145 students despite their discipline and year.
- Wu's study (20xx) investigated 145 students regardless of discipline and year.

- 18. Considerable university students use Wechat as their main tool to communicate with others.
- A considerable number of university students use Wechat as their preferred communication tool.

- 19. As the data clearly confirmed the evidence as to ...
- The data provided evidence of ...

- 20. They are more probably to have better academic performance.
- They are more likely to improve their academic performance.